NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Empress Dowager.

Amongst the celebrated personages of history there can be no doubt that the Empress Dowager will be accorded a prominent position. Few women in the history of the world have done more to stir nations than she, and it would be difficult to name any one woman who is or has been more of an enigma to the world at large.
At the present time, with the fate of China trembling as it were in the balance, she occupies the attention of the whole civilized world and can, by throwing her influence into one scale or the other, become, from the European point of view, an immense power for good or evil.

According to the ideas of the Europeans, the Empress Dowager would be certainly acting for the benefit of humanity in general and her subjects in particular were she to throw her great personal influence into the scale of reform, and we believe that this belief is shared by a great many advanced Chinamen, who thoroughly appreciate the fact that it is impossible for China to longer continue to dree her wierd apart from the other nations. They see that in the great struggle for existence no nation can afford to stand aside, and that the time has come when China must fall into line with the Powers and, distasteful though it may be to her ultra-conservative population, abandon once and for all her antagonistic attitude towards progress and invention. This, it is believed, could be easily brought about were the Empress Dowager to favour such a move.

When Lady MACDONALD visited the Empress Dowager in March, 1900, the Chinese Secretary of the British Legation, who accompanied her, summed up her character in four words, "amiability verging on weakness." After events have led Lady MAC-DONALD to the conclusion that she is "either an accomplished actress, or a woman swayed hither and thither by the counsels of her advisers."

Looking impartially at the matter we do not see that any charge of weakness can be laid to the account of the Empress Dowager, nor do we for a moment think that she is swayed hither and thither by the counsels of her advisers. If such were the case we fall to see how she could have maintained her position at the head of affairs in China for so long, and the planning and successful carrying out of the coup d'etat can scarcely be regarded as the act of a person either physically or intellectually weak.

It is far more likely that China's policy has been prompted by the Empress Dowager herself and that if the swaying process has been indulged in at all it has been carried out by her courtiers, who have been forced to modify or accentuate their views according to those of their Imperial Mistress. She has been trained from earliest infancy in the old conservative school and, according to her own ideas, she has been consistent throughout. What we fancy many people fail to see is that any change of front on the part of the Empress Dowager is dictated by policy. Her amiability, on the occasion of the visit of the Legation ladies was a part of the plan she was carrying out, just as was her recognition of the foreigners of her re-entry into Peking and her subsequent gracious message to Mrs. CONGER, the wife of the American Minister.

It is far more likely that the Empress Dowager is an accomplished actress, and there can be little doubt that she is also a successful one, for anybody who knows his China must perforce admit that she has triumphed all along the line. Her meterly treatment to Hsianlung on the fall of Peking placed her well beyond the reach of the foreigners, and then commenced the long period of negotiation in which she dum-phantly shielded the prime organizers of the so-called Boxer rebellion and left the Powers of Europe no better off than before the commencement of the trouble. It could indeed be pleasant to know that the cent events in China had awakened the Empress Dowager to an appreciation of what Europeans consider to be China's one and only hope, but this, we fear, will hardly pre-be the case.

REUTER'S TELEGRAMS

SOUTH AFRICA.

BOER LAAGER SURPRISE.
LONDON, January 31.
General Bruce Hamilton by a night march surprised a Boer laager. The British troops charged the enemy, who fled and were wounded. Two Boers were killed, four wounded, and eighty-two captured. The British had three wounded.

THE SOUTH AFRICAN WAR.
Mr. Balfour states that a communication regarding the Boers has been received from the Dutch Government, and is now under consideration. He hopes shortly to the communication, with the Government before the House.

changed the usual salutes.

FOR CHINA.—The new twin screw sloop Esperide was to be commissioned on January 21 for service on the China Station. The Esperide is the first of a new class of sloops.

TIENTSIN.—A correspondent of a Shanghai paper says that the foreign Ministers have agreed to hand back the administration of the city of Tientsin to the Chinese authorities on the 31st March next.

A TAN ON MEAT.—It is reported from Wuhu that the authorities of that city have issued a proclamation telling the inhabitants that they have decided to impose a tax on pork and beef sold in the city. The tax will come into effect after Chinese new year. One hundred copper cash will be levied on every fifty catties of meat sold.

FOR THE QUEEN.—Seventy-five Royal Academicians have specially painted pictures of a uniform size, which, enclosed in a handsome mahogany cabinet, has been presented to the Queen as a Christmas gift. This interesting representative collection of modern works of art is the outcome of a proposal mooted last spring to celebrate in some such way the accession of King Edward.

THE CORONATION.—The authorities have now finally decided that Colonial troops are to be present at the Coronation. The exact part that they will take has not yet been settled, but it is believed they will accompany the State procession through London. Substantial additions are being made to the list of representative public men in the Colonies who will receive invitations to be present at the Coronation.

THE LAST LINK.—By the death of Lady Lyndhurst at the great age of 95 the last link between three centuries may be said to have disappeared, for her celebrated husband, the "great" Lord Chancellor of a past generation, was born in Boston two years before the Declaration of American Independence, and his widow lived to see the twentieth century and the invasion of England by Transatlantic capitalists.

THE GERMAN EMPEROR has sent to the British and Foreign Sailors Society, of which Rear-Admiral the Prince of Wales is patron, a large portrait of himself for the Passmore Edwards' Sailors' Palace. His Majesty appears in an admiral's uniform, holding a spyglass in the left hand, with all the bearing of a sailor and lover of the sea. The picture bears the Royal autograph, and is handsomely framed, measuring nearly five feet by four.

THE POST OF EXECUTIONER.—Applications for the appointment of public executioner continue to pour in at the Home Office, and it is stated that no fewer than 300 persons had applied for the post. Each applicant has been informed that the "list of applicants for employment as executioner" is kept by the secretary to the Prison Commissioners. They have also been informed that it does not rest with the Home Office to select an executioner.

A CURIOUS STORY about the Royal tour reaches the Chronicle from Portsmouth. When the Ophir, with the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall on board, was nearing St. Helena, the signal was made to the attendant cruisers St. George and June, as it was desirable to reach port before nightfall. "Can you steam another knot?" and the June replied, "Yes, four if you please." This answer was regarded as impertinent, and when the vessels reached Portsmouth, as a mild form of punishment, the June was ordered to lie up the harbour, while the more respectful St. George came alongside the dockyard. And the June is lying at her moorings still.

DR SVEN HEDIN, the Swedish explorer, who recently arrived in Ladakh, from Central Asia, has sent the following telegram to King Oscar:—"I have made an extremely important journey through all Tibet, disguised as a pilgrim, with two followers. On approaching Lhasa we were recognised and captured, but were well treated by order of the Dalai Lama.
Our second attempt was opposed by 500 Tibetan soldiers. Our splendid discoveries were lost with almost our whole caravan, but my notes were saved. We have reached British territory, where we have been received with every honour and hearty hospitality, by order of the Viceroy."

THE BAND CONCERT on the Parade Ground yesterday was a decided success.
Promptly at 4.30, the band of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers, under the leadership of Bandmaster Moir, began a well-selected and excellently rendered programme, which lasted about an hour. The Parade Ground and neighbouring streets were thronged with people whose extremely satisfied air denoted that they had at last "found some place to go." If the band concerts in the future help to fill this aching void, they will have accomplished their end.
With the many bands attached to the regiments stationed here, two concerts a week could easily be given, and we believe would be largely attended on pleasant days.

BALL BOOTS.

CORDITE CONDEMNED.—The Daily Telegraph says the War Office and Admiralty Committee have condemned cordite in favour of an effective explosive.

THE VICTORIA MEMORIAL.—Public subscriptions to the Victoria Memorial only realised £185,400. It is understood the King will be compelled to ask Parliament for a grant.

A QUEER COMPLAINT.—The brigands who abducted Miss Stone, the American missionary, have complained to the Turkish Government that she is trying to convert them to Christianity.

THE ANONYMOUS GIFT TO THE KING.—The Daily Mail understands that the donor of the anonymous gift of £200,000 to the King is Sir Ernest Cassel. Sir Ernest Cassel, who was knighted in 1889, is a London merchant.

LORD KITCHENER.—The Liverpool Post states that, in reply to an enquiry from the War Office as to when he desired to assume command in India, Lord Kitchener intimated his wish to remain in Africa until the conclusion of the war.

HOOLEY.—The London Gazette states that Mr. Ernest Terah Hooley is removed from the list of deputy lieutenants for the county of Cambridge, as he is no longer qualified as required by the provisions of the Militia Act.
Mr. Hooley is also removed from the list of deputy lieutenants for the county of Huntingdon for the same reason.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.—The Dominion and Newfoundland Governments are prepared to give Signor Marconi extraordinary concessions on the coast if he will arrange to continue his transoceanic experiments in Canada. Every effort is being used to induce the inventor to give up his intention of going to the United States to perfect his instruments.

THE KING'S MOTOR.—The new motor-car which the King has ordered to be built for him at Coventry, and delivered by Ascot week, is to be for six persons and two on the driver's seat. It will have a maximum speed of 24 miles an hour. The fact that His Majesty has placed a new order for an automobile is expected to give a great impetus to the trade at Coventry next year.

OUR LANGUAGES.—A Compilation of considerable interest has just been brought out by Dr. R. N. Cust, LL.D., the well-known Oriental scholar. It takes the form of a complete list of the languages and dialects spoken and written in the British Empire at the close of the nineteenth century. The total number of these is 204, of which 85 are furnished by Asia, 50 by Africa, and 30 by Oceania.

EXCAVATING A MAMMOTH.—Dr. Herz, the zoologist, has gone to superintend the excavation of the mammoth found in the district of Kolyma, on Oct. 25. The discovery is of great scientific interest. At present the left foreleg and left hind leg have been dug out.
The work of excavation cannot be completed in less than a fortnight. There is ice beneath the stratum in which the mammoth's body lies.

THE COURT.—An important announcement respecting the Court arrangements for next season appears in the London Gazette. The King and Queen will, in lieu of Drawing Rooms, hold a series of Courts at Buckingham Palace, at which presentation of ladies to their Majesties will be made. Attendance and presentation at these Courts will be by invitation only, conveyed through the Lord Chamberlain.
The Courts will be held in the evening, and gentlemen may, in exceptional circumstances, accompany the ladies of their family.

OF INTEREST TO CRICKETERS.—A London telegram of the 20th ult. to Australia says: "The committee of the Marylebone Cricket Club has approved of the proposal to widen the bowling crease one foot each way. The committee has also passed a resolution that wickets should be prepared artificially. With regard to illegal bowling the committee find that the decision of captains of county elevens in 1900 has done so much good that it is not necessary to suggest any drastic measure, but hope is expressed that the counties will decline to pay doubtful bowlers."

LORD ROSEBERY was, on 21st ult., presented with the honorary freedom of Swansea, and in acknowledging the compliment he pointed out the necessity of Municipalities carefully watching local expenditure. He considered that every community should possess its ratepayers' association, and that this body should be founded on the most efficient principles. There were two plain and obvious duties inherent in every British citizen—first, to take part, if necessary, in the defence of his country, and, secondly, not to avoid or shirk any public or Municipal duty which might fall upon him.

GOLFERS BEWARE! A ludicrous, and, at the same time, somewhat painful incident, it is related by Golf Illustrated, happened recently on a golf course which shall be nameless. A player was stooping down to tee his ball, when a big ram who was grazing close at hand, probably thinking from the player's attitude that here was a ram, charged him from behind and knocked him forward a dozen yards on his nose.
Jumping up, the irate player seized his club and made for his partner, whose silly joke he deemed it was, whereupon the ram took a second race at him and bowled him over again. He then discovered who his adversary was. But what sort of a golf club was this, where the possibility of such a type of practical joke could enter the mind of a member, even under such serious stress of circumstances?

MESSRS. COTTAM & CO. for WARM DRESSING GOWNS.

MR. JOHN F. SEAMAN, of Wisner & Co., of Shanghai has been appointed by President Roosevelt as one of the Commissioners for the negotiation of a revision of the existing treaty between the United States and China, an appointment which cannot fail to give great satisfaction in Shanghai, says the M. C. D.
News. Mr. Seaman is associated in the Commission with Mr. Conger, U. S. Minister to China, and Mr. Goodnow, U. S. Consul-General at Shanghai. General Sharretts, who is tariff negotiations at his own request, on account of bad health.

A CORONATION ODE COMPETITION.— The coronation being a subject which ought to inspire the mind of every British writer of verse, Good Words, is endeavoring to tempt the poets of the Empire to show the quality at once of their genius and their loyalty by offering £75 in cash prizes (the first prize being £50) for the best coronation odes submitted before the following dates:—

If posted in the British Isles or any part of Europe, by 31 March, 1902.

If posted in any part of North or South America or the West Indies, by 20 April, 1902.

If posted in any part of India or his Majesty's Asiatic possessions, by 20 April, 1902.

If posted in any part of Australasia, by 30 April, 1902.

Invitations to compete are being sent to all the remotest corners of the British Empire.

THE COLONIAL EXHIBITION.—Much interest is taken in the forthcoming Colonial Exhibition at the Royal Exchange. It is the first time that a Royal Exchange has been the scene of such an exhibition.
The existing structure, opened in 1845, is the third Exchange built on the present site. The first one was projected by Sir James Gresham, Lord Mayor in 1538, hence the managing body is called the Gresham Committee.
The land on which the Exchange was built was presented by Sir James in equal moieties to the City and the Mercer's Company, as a pledge of which Gresham, before Alderman Rivers and other citizens, gave his hand to Sir William Garrard, and "drank a carouse to his kinsman, Thomas Rowe." The first building was a close imitation of the great Bourse at Antwerp, and was opened by Queen Elizabeth, who came from her house in the Strand—Somerset House—for that purpose.

MR. H. F. KING, who has temporarily filled the position of Police Magistrate at Shanghai for the past twelve months, has now rejoined the Consular service as His Majesty's Consul at Hangchow. He does not enter upon his duties forthwith, but has been instructed to hold himself for the present at the disposal of Mr. Pelham Warren. Meanwhile, Mr.
Douglas succeeds him as Police Magistrate.
During the time he has been upon the local bench, Mr. King has won golden opinions from the Court officials and the general public with whom he has been brought officially in contact, for his unflinching courtesy and his fair and impartial consideration of all matters brought before him. Consequently there will be general regret at the prospect of his removal from Shanghai. At the same time, his numerous friends will be heartily pleased at his being transferred to a more important position, in which his acknowledged abilities will have greater scope for action, and the promise of more substantial reward.—N. C. D. News.

OUR NAVY.—The New York Sun publishes an interview with its Washington correspondent has had with Captain Glover, Naval Attache to the American Embassy in London.
The latter is represented to have said that the British Navy was far more effective and efficient than the Continental Powers believed.
England was never stronger on the seas. The service had been severely criticised, but much of the criticism regarding its efficiency was due to the policy of the Navy League and the Press to depreciate England's strength in the mind of the public in order that large appropriations might be secured for expenditure on the Navy, thus enabling the policy to be continued, of maintaining it on an equality with the combined naval strength of any two Powers. The policy in England, Captain Glover continued, seemed to be to impress the public with the weakness rather than with the strength of the service, with a view to securing additional ships, through a misapprehension in the public mind that the force was not keeping pace with its importance to the nation. England to-day was stronger than any two of the most powerful Continental Powers, with another power included.

CAPTAIN J. R. JELlicoe, who has been appointed to superintend the building by contract of warships, fills, says a home paper, a vacancy which has existed since Admiral Morant completed his work as admiral-superintendent of ships built by contract under the Naval Defence Act. One of the main objects of Captain Jellicoe will be to acquire a complete knowledge of what are colloquially known as dockyard styles in the way of fittings and minute details of ships in which contractors are allowed a certain amount of latitude, but who find their work condemned when the ships reach the dockyards. Beyond that, he will be the official superior of the civilian overseers employed by the Admiralty in private yards, and to him they will appeal for the enforcement of their views, without reference to the Admiralty, thus overcoming a very strong objection held by the contractors to the protracted delays at Whitehall in the conduct of the correspondence and in the settlement of any points in dispute.
From a personal point of view, no better officer could have been selected than Captain Jellicoe, as he is young and active, is an excellent man, and as flag-captain to Sir E. H. Seymour on the China station, he has acquired an experience that is invaluable.

GAMBLING AT ETON.—A gentleman intimately connected with Eton has been interviewed by the Daily Mail concerning the betting craze among public school boys. He says that the evil has given a good deal of trouble to the authorities, who are doing their best to stamp it out. Recently it came to the knowledge of the headmaster at Eton that many of the boys betted largely on horses, and betting circulars and cards were found in several of their rooms. Then Dr. Warre had the whole of the school assembled and laid it down that the boys were not to buy either new papers or "tipping" cards in the streets, but that newspapers would be supplied for general reading in the various houses.

H.M.S. GOOD HOPE.—The magnificent new war-vessel which the Cape Government has presented to the British Navy, dropped anchor at Simonstown on 21st ult., having been safely brought from the Fairfield Shipbuilding Yard on the Clyde. With the exception of the Powerful and Terrible, she is the largest cruiser that has ever steamed into the harbor. She displaces 19,100 tons, draws only 28ft. of water, and has an indicated horsepower of 30,000, against the 25,000 of the Powerful and her sister vessel. She is also designed to steam a knot faster—namely, 23 knots an hour. Her defensive power is immensely superior to the cruisers named, and she is more formidably armed, being capable of hurling at an enemy several tons of shot and shell a minute.

CHRISTMAS DAY in England was not, in spite of the weather, propitious, such a very miserable day, after all. It was not an old-fashioned Christmas day. The country was not drenched in snow, although here and there a little snow fell. Skating was scarcely a possibility. There was not even a bright winter sun, setting in a glow of fire behind the hills and the trees and the house-tops of the cities. It was dull to be in with, and rain for two or three hours. It was what, perhaps, a Lord Chancellor might be tempted to call "a sort of a Christmas Day." But it was a vast improvement on Christmas. Everywhere the cheery spirit of the season prevailed. The postmen suggested under loads of Christmas greetings that seemed bulkier than ever before. In London, as elsewhere, the day passed off gladly. The churches and chapels were thronged with worshippers. The hospitals, workhouses, and other public institutions joyfully celebrated the day. In the evening the streets of the great metropolis were as quiet as they are only on Christmas night, and carol singers were abroad. Christmas Day was kept in the services with the customary festivity, duties being relaxed and extra fare and entertainment provided.

THE RUSSIAN NAVY.—A naval correspondent of a home paper furnishes the following particulars concerning the Russian navy:—A new cruiser has recently been laid down in the new Admiralty yard at St. Petersburg. It will be called the Oleg, and will be built after the type of the cruiser Dmitry, which was built in Germany. The Oleg will be 400 feet in length, and its speed is to be 17 knots. The first-class cruiser Abdolo, which has been built in the Germania Yard at Kiel, has been ordered to report itself in the port of Libau on Jan. 12. The first-class cruiser Vladar arrived at Murka on Dec. 11. The question of introducing reforms into the corps of marine engineers has now been raised by the Ministry of Marine. The cruisers Almas and Zemrud, which are in course of construction in the Nevsky Shipbuilding Yard at St. Petersburg, and which are of the same type as the cruiser Novik, built in the Schichau Yard at Elbing, in Germany, will have a displacement of 3,000 tons, a length of 364 feet, a beam of 40 feet, and a draught of 17 feet 3 inches. According to the terms of the contract the two machines of triple expansion must be capable of giving each cruiser a speed of 25 knots.

A TERRIBLE DISASTER has occurred in the Dingle tunnel of the Liverpool Overhead Railway. The electric car, in some unexplained manner, fused the woodwork of a train which was passing through the tunnel, and the flames set on fire a pile of sleepers saturated with creosote. In an instant the tunnel was in a fierce blaze. When the accident took place there was a flash like a vivid stream of light, and immediately, to the horror of the passengers, the floors burst into flames. The train rushed along for a short distance and then stopped dead. The lights in the carriages and at the station close at hand were suddenly extinguished, and suffocating fumes began to rise from a stock of creosoted sleepers which had been set on fire by the train. The passengers rushed to the doors on the side of the train farthest from the wall of the tunnel, and were terror-stricken to find that they were locked. They were caught like rats in a trap between the locked doors on the one side and the wall on the other, with the fire crackling and blazing all round them. A scene of indescribable panic and confusion ensued. Some of the passengers broke through the windows and made their escape in this way, but many were overcome by the acrid fumes and were roasted alive, and were unable to help themselves. Six lives are known to have been lost and many people were injured.

THE WAR IN DEMNITY.

THE EMPRESS DOWAGER'S VIEWS.

When the Empress Dowager received the Presidents of the Board of Revenue in audience for the first time after the Court's return to Peking, her Majesty inquired how much money there was in the Imperial Exchequer, and whether they had made arrangements to pay the first instalment of the war indemnity. Her Majesty emphasised the importance of making the payments punctually so as to gain the confidence of the foreign Powers.

ACCIDENT IN THE HARBOUR.

A SAMPAH CAPSIZED.

Shortly after noon yesterday, a sampah, which was sailing across the Harbour before a strong breeze, capsized, imprisoning some of the occupants beneath it. Mr. Clark happened to be passing at the time in the launch Sia Wat-kin and promptly went to the rescue. The capsized craft was righted with difficulty and the imprisoned crew extricated from their perilous position. By the time the last occupant, a boy of nine, was brought to the surface, he had lost consciousness. It was a curious sight to see the native methods of resuscitation which were indulged in after the rescued had been handed over to a Chinese launch which had come up. These consisted in holding the half-drowned boy up by the ankles for a considerable time and, so to speak, allowing him to drain. However, these rough and ready methods, although hardly in accordance with the instructions laid down by the Royal Humane Society, seemed to be effective.

A! THE MACSTRACY.

January 30th.

PAWN TICKET FOR A LICENSE.

Police constable No. 6 approached a rickshaw coolie yesterday and asked him in English if he had a license. "No, subbe" was the answer. He then spoke to him in Chinese and the coolie, thinking he was dealing with a new applicant and not an old hand like number 6, calmly handed out a pawn ticket. The constable's answer so unwittingly surprised the coolie, and he did not recover from his astonishment until he arrived at the Police Station. A $5 fine was the result to-day.

A $10. TRAMWAY RIDE.

$10. from Victoria Gap to Hongkong on the Tramway is somewhat expensive but that is what it cost Yau Yau. He attempted to persuade the conductor that an old pawn ticket was "good for one ride" at any time. But the conductor would not be persuaded, and although Yau Yau exhausted his eloquence on His Worship this morning, he could not remove the impression that a $10 fine was about right, which was paid.

A LEGGED THEFT AT CRAIGIEBURN.

Yau Wa, coolie, and Yau Nam, heron-boy at the Craigieburn Hotel, were arrested for the theft of a gold bracelet, valued at about $35, from Mrs. Ethel Pyne, at that hotel. There being no other evidence than the fact of the bracelet being in their possession, the complaint not putting in an appearance, they were discharged.

THE CALLIOPH CASE.

D. Wade, donkeyman, John Frost, fireman, Ralph Veitch and Alfred Martin, stokers on the s.s. Calliope, appeared before Mr. Kemp to-day to answer to the charges of using abusive language and a rant to do bodily harm, upon the persons of the Chief, and 3rd Engineer of that ship. Mr. Thomson appeared for the prosecution, and stated that it was a very aggravated case and that the Chief and 3rd Engineer were now in the hospital as a result of the fracas. He read a report of their injuries, sent by Dr. Gibson, and urged that a severe sentence be imposed as the assault was entirely unprovoked, and was premeditated. The prisoners pleaded guilty to a charge of simple "assault," but not guilty to the other charges. They were each sentenced to two months hard labour, and the other charges were withdrawn by the prosecution.

DEATH OF A DIVER.

An inquiry into the cause of the death of the 2nd Lt. of Ah Wing, a diver employed at the Navy Yard Extension, was held by Mr. Macleod. Reports and testimony were received but no decision was rendered, the case being remanded until the 1st. prox., when the full testimony will be published.

NOTES FROM NATIVE SOURCES.

The following notes have been sent to us from a native correspondent at Tientsin:—

YUAN SHIH-KAI.

H.E. Yuan Shih-kai, Viceroy of Chihli Province, has, since he accompanied the Court on the return journey to Peking, been in high favour with the Empress Dowager. She has in fact admitted to him that upon him depends, to a very great extent, the success or failure of the Government. Yuan has, it is said, presumed upon his ability and power, and has got on loggerheads with H.E. Wang Wen-shao, the Plenipotentiary, who is much his senior in years. The result of this ill-feeling is that Wang desires to relinquish his present position and give Yuan an opportunity of trying how he can fill this important post. It is reported that Yuan is to be appointed Generalissimo of the Northern Forces in succession to Jung Lu, who is anxious to retire.

EVING OUT THE LAND.

The Russian Minister is said to have sent a Chinese secret Agent to Tientsin to keep an eye upon the movements of the British and Japanese in that district.

THE HUNGCHOW MASSACRE.

It was by the order of Yu Lien-sai, Governor of Hunan, that the churches were fired and the missionaries massacred at Hungchow in 1900, and hence, according to article 2 of the Protocol signed at Peking last year, the examinations at Hungchow have been forbidden for five years. The inhabitants of Hungchow have submitted quietly to the punishment, but say that, as the outrages were ordered by the Governor, they themselves are not to blame. Consequently a few of the Hungchow gentry have come to Peking with the intention of denouncing the anti-foreign Yu Lien-sai to the Emperor.

A NEW BANK.

A branch of the Yokohama Specie Bank is to be established at Peking in the early part of the coming Chinese year.

MESSRS. COTTAM & CO. for THE FAVORITE-STRAW HAT AND TAN KID GLOVES.

REFORM IN CHINA.

VICEROY YUAN'S SUGGESTIONS.

PEKING, 24th January. Viceroy Yuan Shih-kai has secretly memorialised the Throne suggesting certain reforms in the formation of the Chengwu Ch'u (Board of Government Affairs):—(1) That there should be engaged an Advisory Staff consisting of a Britisher, an American, a Japanese, a Russian, a German, and a Frenchman. (2) The officials of each province shall send two or three well-known enlightened and experienced men, who thoroughly understand the needs and condition of their own provinces, who shall form an advisory staff on provincial affairs. (3) To invite and avail of the services of men who have been abroad and possess good education, and experience, regardless of the rank they hold. (4) To select able and talented men from the Foreign Ministry. The above were four of Viceroy Yuan's principal suggestions for the reform of the Government.—N. C. D. News Cor.

SANITATION IN CHINA.

A STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

The Governor at Soochow, says a Shanghai paper, has issued a proclamation to the following effect: As the population of this city is large and the river narrow, I hereby warn all the inhabitants of the place against throwing any refuse into the river in future. If refuse or garbage be continuously thrown into the river, not only will the channel of the river be filled up in course of time, but its water which is daily drawn by the whole city for drinking and washing purposes will be tainted and no longer serviceable; for, as is well-known, unclean water is a great source of contagious diseases, which once engendered it will be difficult to stamp out. Therefore the purity of the water must be preserved by keeping the river clear of all dirty and offensive matters. But the refuse or garbage has to be disposed of in some other way, if not thrown into the river as hitherto. I therefore order that after the issuance of this proclamation, every house in the city should place a basket outside the door and throw into it any thing which its inmates desire to get rid of. Scavengers will be sent round by the Constabulary Bureau or Pao-Chia Chu twice a day to collect all the refuse which they find in these baskets and send it by boats to some place far away from the town. These scavengers will be paid for their services by the Re-organisation Bureau and not by the people.

CONCESSION HUNTING.

A BELGIAN CONCESSION.

It is reported from Tientsin that the negotiations, which have been going on for some time, regarding the Belgian demand for a new Concession at that port, are now concluded. This new concession lies further down along the Tientsin River than all the other concessions and covers an area of about six hundred acres.

ANOTHER CONCESSION.

A correspondent writing from Tientsin, says: Before his death, the late Li Hung-chang was approached by the Italian authorities who requested him to use his influence to persuade the Chinese Government to grant them a Concession at Tientsin. But Li Hung-chang rejected the demand and the Italians felt very much disappointed. Subsequently, however, they seized a large piece of land on which are many native houses, on the east bank of the Tientsin River. They have since improved the roads and built a Police Station on the land. But they impose a greater tax on the houses within the limits of the land than that collected in Tientsin by the Tientsin Provisional Government. It is said that the Board of Foreign Affairs in Peking will take up the matter in hand soon and ask the Italians why they took the land before the Chinese Government consented.—Mercury.

TUNG FU-SHIANG.

NEWS CONTRADICTED.

Writing to a Shanghai paper from Peking, a correspondent says:—According to a report in the Shanghai foreign press, the Court has issued a Decree for the decapitation of the notorious Tung Fu-shiang. But, from the most reliable authority here, I learn that such a Decree was never issued. The Court has only decreed the perpetual imprisonment of Tung Fu-shiang. This Decree was issued on the 4th instant when the Court was still in Paoingfu.

THE CANTON NATIVE CUSTOMS.

THE HOPPO'S ACTION EXPLAINED.

A correspondent writing from Peking to the Mercury, says: The reason why the Chinese Government has refused to hand over the native customs establishments at Canton to the control of the Maritime Customs until now is because the continuance of the management of these establishments in the hands of the native authorities is to the personal advantage of the Empress Dowager. Bitter to the Empress Dowager has bought many things annually from Canton through the hands of these establishments. The Hoppo, who is always a Manchu and always owes his lucrative appointment to her Majesty. Therefore he never charges his private stores with articles he purchases for her and he is in a certain sense, her private accountant. If these customs be transferred to foreign control, the Empress Dowager will not be able to use their revenue so freely as before. Hence she stood obstinately in the way of their surrender, until Prince Ching intervened and persuaded her Majesty to give way. He told her Majesty that, after the transfer of these customs establishments, she can draw public money to buy things from Canton if she should so desire.

NOTES ON NATIVE AFFAIRS.

[From the N. C. D. News.]

THE GOVERNOR OF SHANTUNG, H. E. Chang Jen-chün, as readers of the columns have already been aware for some time is not a very popular personage with German in that province, nor, for that matter, a person grata with his own people. Our native correspondent at Peking now writes that the Wai-pu, or Foreign Ministry, has lately received formal telegraphic dispatch from the German Governor of Tsingtao, stating that Governor Chang Jen-chün does not work smoothly with the Germans in Shantung province, in consequence of which the Imperial Government requested to transfer that official to some other province.

AN ABLE OFFICIAL.

Our native correspondent at Peking further reports that H. E. Hu Yü-fen received recently a secret Imperial decree appointing him Assistant to the Chinese Plenipotentiaries in the negotiations with the Russian Minister Re-michurina. This appointment is said to have become due to the strong recommendations of the Prince Ching and Wang Wen-shao.

A SMART MOVE.

A Peking dispatch to hand states that Russian Minister, M. Lessar, recently informed the Chinese Plenipotentiaries that he would forego the clause in the late Li Hung-chang Manchurian Convention referring to Railways and Mines in the three provinces, and consequently its being cancelled and erased from the document. This "forbearance" was, at first, received by the Chinese, who were grateful for it. Fortunately for them, however, it fell that H. E. Hu Yü-fen, happened to be with Chinese Plenipotentiaries at the time they were talking over the matter, and pointed out to them that this was no forbearance at all.
The Russian Minister's part, for an almost similar agreement had long ago been made between Li Hung-chang and Count Cassini-Cassin (Convention), which still stands, which the Russians can at any time call China to make good. Apropos, this piece news appears to confirm the foregoing graph which reports H. E. Hu Yü-fen's appointment by secret Imperial decree.

MUTUAL APPREHENSIONS.

A Northern dispatch from a reliable source reaches us which states that it has been decided by the Empress Dowager's counsellors to permanently garrison the immediate outside environs of the Imperial Palaces, partly with corps of Viceroy Yuan Shih-k'ai's best troops (infantry, cavalry, and half a battery of artillery) and partly with Marshal Sung Ch'ing's troops making a total of some 15,000 of them, counting the various corps of Manchuria Ban-men, such as the Husheng ("glorified fire") — all were Boxers in 1900) Corps, Peking F.
Force, etc.; all of whom are now also armed with modern magazine rifles and possess quiniquing artillery of various calibre. Marshal Sung Ch'ing's troops were expected to arrive at Peking from Cheeping—where the Imperial Party had taken the train and left it.

military escort, which had accompanied it from Hsian down to that city—by the 22nd January, and are to garrison those portions of the Palace Precincts at present but sparsely held. This decision of the Empress Dowager's Ministers is meant as a counter-move to the garrisons and fortifications of the new Legation Area of the various Powers. "Alas! the two parties are watching one another like opposing tigers," continues the dispatch, "each fearing treachery from the other." Can there be lasting peace and harmony under such fearsome conditions?

THE YANGTZE VICEROYS!

The Universal Gazette learns that an Imperial decree has been recently issued commanding Viceroy's Liu K'un-yi and Chang Chih-tung to go up to Peking for special audience. It is probable that Viceroy Liu will go up to Peking when the Feiho opens to navigation and that when H.E. has returned to Nanking, Chang Chih-tung will go up North.

THE LATE MR. MUSKETT.

The following from the Penang Gazette may be of interest to some of our readers:

We hear with much regret of the death of Mr. W. A. Musckett, which took place at Kowloon on the 1st instant. Mr. Musckett was well known in Penang where he was for some years from 1891 to, we believe, 1893, sub-editor of the Straits Independent. He returned to Penang and edited the Straits Maritime Journal during 1895 and part of 1896. He was a true Bohemian, and in his time had played many parts. Born within sound of Bow-Bells he was a cockney, yet one it was impossible to keep within the narrow bounds of even the first city in the world, and at an early age he joined a travelling theatrical company which got stranded in Constantinople. He afterwards travelled in South Africa, and eventually found his way to India, where among other work he edited a Poona paper, and where Mr. Harry Stanley was then starting with his burlesque company, which under the name of Harry Pyne he joined as scene painter. What sort of a scenic artist he made it is difficult to say, for we have frequently heard him relate that he had never previously put brush to canvas, but he certainly attained some efficiency in the art, and in the Penang Town Hall there are still portions of stage scenery, including the drop scene—now somewhat faded—which owe their existence to his industry. Harry Pyne remained some years with Stanley, and rose from scene painter to leading comedian, author and stage manager. Having left the Stanley Company, Mr. Musckett, no longer Harry Pyne, conducted the Straits Independent, as noted above. He entered heart and soul into the work of the Amateur Dramatic Club, who during his stay gave several excellent performances. He also wrote two burlesques for the Engineers' Institute here, in 1892 and 1893, which were rendered with great success, one of them being afterwards given before a crowded audience in the Town Hall. For his services he was elected a life member of the Engineers' Institute. He also took much interest in things Masonic, and was at one time Secretary of the Royal Prince of Wales Lodge, Penang. After leaving the Straits Independent he joined the "London Lyric" Company then travelling in Penang; and later on was with Messrs. Ada Mavens' Company in India and Burmah. Eventually he took over the editorship of the now defunct Maritime Journal, into which he introduced the "Chutney," which he afterwards continued in Hongkong. Mr. Musckett was a genuine sample of the true Bohemian and a man of great natural ability. He had an extraordinary faculty of writing topical verses of a humorous description, which he delighted in singing, and everything he did he did well. Some of his best literary work is buried in old volumes of the Straits Maritime Journal. He was a rapid writer and original thinker, but like many other clever men of too restless a disposition to settle down long in one place. With his departure to Hongkong, our personal knowledge of him ceased; but there are many in Penang who will still remember him with kindly sympathy, and will regret the early death of so versatile a man and so genial a companion.

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN STRAITS CHINAMAN.

THE LATE MR. YAP KWAN SENG.

We regret to have to record that Towkay Yap Kwan Seng, Captain China of Selangor, died at his home in High Street last night at 10-25 p.m., says the Malay Mail of 18th inst. He had been ill for the past two years and a distinct change for the worse set in just before Mr. Hare went on leave, about last July. The cause of death was, we believe, consumption. The deceased was born at Chiak Kai in the district of Sin Neng (Kwoong) thirty-five years ago and came to the Straits some forty years ago. He had resided in Selangor for about thirty-two years.

During this time he was largely interested in tin-mining, building and the carrying on of the different Farms.

He was the founder of Tung Shin Hospital and Chairman of the Tai-Wah wards. He also took a very great interest in starting Chinese schools—one in Kuala Lumpur and another at Ipoh. He was a Trustee of the Victoria Institution, to whose funds he liberally subscribed. He gave $16,000 to the Transvaal War Fund and also a handsome donation to St. Mary's Church building fund. He was always a good friend to his poorer countrymen for whom he established a practically free dispensary.
